Family Mediation services are provided on a sliding scale basis to families who wish to address issues in a safe and supportive environment.

Family Mediation allows participants to identify disputes within the family unit and explore ways to resolve them. Disputes addressed within Family Mediations range from separation agreements, communication plans, rule setting, division of assets and parenting plans.

Take our "Am I Ready" Quiz to determine if mediation is an option for your family.

Our services are offered on a sliding scale based on combined family income. For those families experiencing financial difficulties, we have a mediation services subsidy fund, which is generously supported by the Provincial Employees Community Services Fund and Playtime Bingo Victoria.
