Rachelle Keeley
Board Member

Rachelle has a work history that shows her determination to give back to the community. She has worked in the youth hospice and the youth psychiatric units at Queen Alexander Hospital for children. Following this up with years of work with young offenders through Attorney General contracts, at the same time she found balance in working with foreign students at St. Margaret's school for girls. After time abroad for educational purposes she has accepted a management position in Victoria with Bikram's Hot Yoga. Rachelle completed her Masters degree at the University of Burgundy in France doing a cross disciplinary degree combining elements from Cognitive Psychology, Semiotics and Text Analysis.
